

Exceptional Care for Exceptional Times.

The world is now a different place. What you need from us has changed too.

As with so many aspects of everyday life, the world of travel is undergoing major change due to the global COVID-19 pandemic. In addition to new policies and procedures while travelling, we can expect new and unique requirements and restrictions on travellers as well as other changes coming that are yet to be considered.

The confusion and anxiety related to the pandemic will affect corporate travel programs. And with the vital role that travel will play in corporate and economic recovery, you will need a trusted partner to help you navigate through these times.

With the global reach of the world-wide Uniglobe Travel network, we have first-hand knowledge of travel activity as it recovers in each market. We also offer services and programs designed to protect you and your company such as Uniglobe 7*24 Rescue Line, Uniglobe TripCheck and our Duty of Care provisions for safety, security and tracking of travellers. But our concept of Exceptional Care is even more than those.
